The Michigan Southern Road earned the same week in 1864, $7,813; 1863, $7,370; increase, $443. The Erie Railway Company received gross in March, 1865, notwithstanding the flood, $1,500,000. Its net traffic in March, 1865, was $1,114,500, and the first four months of the year will surpass those of last season.

The Globe Insurance Company has declared a dividend of five per cent, and the North American Insurance Company one of four per cent. The First National Bank sold today $300,000 of 7.30s, and Fisk & Hatch $350,000.

If the action of the sales of dry goods are quite large, Wilderding, Hoguet & Co. hold one of cloths, linens, &c., which sold in rather a dull manner, many lots in the catalogue having to be passed. The woolens generally were heavy. The black Italian range from 25 to 40c, gray black linens sold at 37c, and Spanish 60 at 67c.

Townsend, Montant & Co. had a sale of white goods, which was largely attended, and which commanded fair success. The Handkerchiefs went off in the style, the prices were fair, and duplicates to the fullest extent were readily taken up. A few Baltimore shirts sold the light colors yielding 17 1/2 to 18 1/2; 4 1/2 Union Linens varied from 18 to 45c; the 4 1/2 Jozeets and so on at first; the prices on the first lots only reached 18 1/2 to 20c, but improved with the better grades.

Hadden & Co. had a very good sale of carpets. In a few instances prices ruled low, but as a general thing there was a marked improvement over previous sales. John Cressley & Sons' 3 1/2 yd.
